Maxion Wheels is constantly striving to improve its performance, both in the quality and competitiveness of the products we manufacture and in the nature of our impact on the communities and environmental regions in which we operate.

To this end, Maxion Wheels does not only consider quality, technology, service level, price competitiveness and financial condition. We also strive to work with suppliers who acknowledge and agree to adhere to (1) the principles set out in the lochpe-Maxion Code of Ethics, including but not limited to the protection of human rights, the fight against corruption and the protection of the environment; (2) the principles set out in the Maxion Wheels Anti-corruption Policy, and; (3) the rules and regulations set forth in the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act relating to the disclosure and reporting requirements regarding conflict minerals (tin, tungsten, tantalum and gold).
